

A CRUMB CAKE FROM MY HOME

by Michael Majerski

SYNOPSIS

Feature documentary film about the problems of identity of the people living in Upper Silesia region nowadays and about the trials to protect what has been left after years of Germanisation and Polonisation of Upper Silesia. The film tells the story of the effects of war on the inhabitants of Upper Silesia and asks a question about the future of Upper silesia as an antonomous region.

The film is also a colage of multilingual Upper-Silesian biographies and personal look behind the scenes of a fascinating Polish - German recent history.
