

A DAUGHTER'S HOME

by Uli Bez

SYNOPSIS

Five women: Paloma, Vicky, Agata, Melis and Nadira. They live in Germany and have a migration history, as their family roots lie in Brazil, Greece, Poland, Turkey and Uzbekistan. The film interweaves the narratives of the protagonists and focuses on the enriching interaction between the cultural foregrounds and backgrounds that characterise each of them. With charm and depth, the women tell of belonging and alienation in a globalised world. Beyond attributions, their exciting life stories open up an alert view of our society and also sketch a world as it could be.
