

ABSCONDED - YOUNG RUSSIANS ON THE RUN

by Anastasia Vinokurova

SYNOPSIS

The film documents the first two weeks after the Russian war of aggression on Ukraine from the perspective of the Siberian dissident Egor Lesnoy and his family. They stand pars pro toto for millions of mostly young Russians who turn their backs on their country out of deep despair over this policy and the ignorance of many compatriots. A story that has hardly ever been told so intimately and so closely to the protagonists...
