

ACHTUNG! CASTING

by Urs Odermatt

SYNOPSIS

Not afraid of nothing! Urs Odermatt's auditions are famous and notorious. When you get his call-back, there's only a yes or no. Many say no – stripped, soaked in icy water, slapped in the face in front of the camera. It doesn't get any worse! Many say yes! – Finally being challenged; even overwhelmed. That's why they pursued a career in acting. Locked in the cage of rapid-fire lines carved in stone, gagged by the unforgiving close-up camera that sees in the eyes the depths of the soul – yet equipped with the utter freedom of thought and acting creativity, over six hundred actors give their all in auditions to secure a role in his new film.
