

ADRIAN'S DREAM

by Manuel Fenn

SYNOPSIS

Adrian (18) is living his dream: since very early childhood, he has wanted to be a ballet star. However, the training at the elite State Ballet School of Berlin (Germany) is hard and Adrian's father, who works on a construction site, cannot identify with the goals of his only son. For eight years, from childhood to the end of puberty, Manuel Fenn has accompanied Adrian along what is often a difficult path. Any similarities to "Billy Elliott" are by pure chance...
