

ALICE SCHWARZER

by Sabine Derflinger

SYNOPSIS

"Let's not get upset, let's do something!" Alice Schwarzer, Germany's most famous women's rights activist.

Alice Schwarzer has always been a polarising force. As a popular figure on TV, she has divided married couples watching from their sofas across the German-speaking world and encouraged women to emancipate themselves. The film reveals a side to Schwarzer that goes beyond the influential feminist and journalist we know from her autobiography.

with Alice Schwarzer, Elisabeth Badinter, Anne Zelensky, Jasmin Tabatabai, Bettina Flitner u. a.
