

BE WILD - NORMALITY IS RADICAL

by Christian Belz

SYNOPSIS

Between climate injustice, catastrophe and hope, eight young people search for ways out and solutions. They all take very different paths and show that there can be hope.

The young film crew is looking for ways out of the climate crisis. In different cities they meet people who commit their lives to preserving our environment in different ways. In inspiring conversations they talk about their thoughts, motivation and hope and why we have to break out of our comfort zone. 8 protagonists try to reach out for solutions for climate justice in our future and open up perspectives of hope.
