

BREATHING EARTH

by Thomas Riedelsheimer

SYNOPSIS

World famous Japanese artist Susumu Shingu sculpts the winds and follows them in search of a resting place, a windpowered home, for his long, lifetime dream of Breathing Earth. He talks with nature through his sculptures. His lifelong dialogue with the wind and with water has given the world uniquely beautiful works of fluid, unpredictable and everchanging movement. Susumu renders visible the veiled and the unseen and opens to us new perspectives. Thomas Riedelsheimer accompanies this quiet and unassuming man in pursuit of a dream, a quest to create an awareness of our planet, our breathing earth and our human values. Breathing Earth is a film about the wind, the philosophy of a wise person, about art and love and dreams.

„A wonderful film with beautiful images and a very important message for all of us.“ (FBW)
