

CHINESE DREAM

by Lena Karbe, Tristan Coloma

SYNOPSIS

CHINESE DREAM is an episodic documentary, set in an African milieu in Guangzhou, China. For the first time in its history China becomes an immigration goal. At the moment more than 300.000 Africans live permanently in China. The protagonists of CHINESE DREAM are Chinese who interact with Africans on a daily basis: They come from different social classes and occupations. CHINESE DREAM shows how Chinese society tackles the immigration challenge coming from Africa.
