

CONDUCT! EVERY MOVE COUNTS

by Goetz Schauder

SYNOPSIS

Every two years 24 young conductors travel to the Frankfurt Opera House to compete against each other in the world's leading Sir Georg Solti conducting competition.

CONDUCT! EVERY MOVE COUNTS accompanies five of them through evaluation rounds up to the final, which two of them reach. Aziz Shokhakov who traveled from the remote Uzbekistan will prove that he is one of the best in his field though being only twenty years old. Music reverberates within the young man. His assertiveness collides with the views of the older, more experienced orchestra musicians. In the USA Alondra de la Parra is already a star. The New Yorker attempts to conquer Europe with her refreshing enthusiasm. Despite the enormous pressure of the competition the eloquent Englishman James Lowe keeps his integrity as a musician and a human being. The German Andreas Hotz tries to convince the orchestra with intellect and knowledge. Shizuo Z Kuwahara has traveled from Japan without baton. He creates moments of greatest...
