

CONFLUENCE

by Benjamin Ramírez Pérez, Stefan Ramírez Pérez

SYNOPSIS

CONFLUENCE centers around Serbian pop singer and former child star Doris Bizetić. In a mixture between pop and lecture performance Doris' biography is conflated with histories of architectures in Belgrade.

As Doris recounts memories of her childhood in front of cameras and talks about war trauma, her biography is linked to the history of Belgrade's CK Tower, in which her life stages as well as the transitions of political systems in Serbia are mirrored.
