

COUNTERATTACK. ART TAKES AIM AT THE ECONOMY

by Nico Weber, Piroschka Dossi

SYNOPSIS

Each of the four films of 'Counterattack. Art takes aim at the economy' will present a single work or a series of works of an extraordinary artist that explores - through special artistic means - complex economic and financial phenomena of the 21st century and questions underlying assumptions which fuel what analysts like to call economic processes.

Part1: MONEY – Circulation of Values

The Roman artist: Cesare Pietroiusti with his performance 'Eating Money – An Auction'

Part2: SPECULATION – The Siren Song of the Stock Market

The Italian composer Fabio Ciffariello Ciardi with the sound installation 'Nasdaq Voices'

Part3: CONSUMERISM – Capitalism's Promise of Luck

The London artist Michael Landy with the video: 'Breakdown'

Part4: INEQUALITY – Poor and Rich

The New York artist Tina Barney with the series of photographs: 'Theater of Manners'.
