

DANCE FIGHT LOVE DIE

by Asteris Kutulas

SYNOPSIS

DANCE FIGHT LOVE DIE is an exuberant visual epic: a poetic road movie from the cosmos of composer Mikis Theodorakis (Z, CANTO GENERAL, SERPICO, ZORBA THE GREEK). He is the ingenious enfant terrible of our recent European musical history, a man who made history.

Director Asteris Kutulas captured countless moments of the composer's life over 3 decades, 4 continents, 100 locations, and 600 hours of footage. For this exceptional film, Kutulas spliced extremely personal moments with treasures from the archives, documentary recordings with fictions, even the humorously grotesque, adding Theodorakis' own music as reinterpreted by many, mostly young, artists. An 88-minute music extravaganza...
