

DIGITAL DISSIDENTS

by Cyril Tuschi

SYNOPSIS

Digital Dissidents are the warriors of the digital age: Republican patriots, radical anarchists and cyber-hippies fight side by side for transparency and privacy in the digital world. For that, they are in prison, live in exile or have lost their careers and families. While many people celebrate them as heroes, critics, intelligence services and companies condemn their actions as an assault on our security. Why are they doing it? What are their motives?

The film focuses on people, who became dissidents out of different motivations: NSA-whistleblowers like Edward Snowden, Thomas Drake or William Binney, the journalist Daniel Ellsberg, who is said to be the prime father of whistleblowers since he published the 'Pentagon Papers' in the 1970s, former British MI5-agent Annie Machon or the founder of Wiki Leaks Julian Assange. They have worked in the system for years and finally attacked it from within by disclosing sensitive information.

52min or 90min | HD | 16:9 | original English...

FESTIVALS

Montréal WFF

Sao Paulo IFF

Raindance FF

WATCH DOCS - Human Rights in Film IFF

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Cyril Tuschi · PRODUCER Christian Beetz · DOP Peter Dörfler

2015

90 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Current Affairs, Human Rights, Migration, Politics

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

English

PREMIERE

Germany (2015)

PRODUCTION COMPANY

beetz brothers film production

Berlin

Germany

info@gebrueder-beetz.de

<https://gebrueder-beetz.de/en/>