THE NARRATOR`S SPACE

by Steffi Wurster

SYNOPSIS

Russian artists opposing the war have little room to speak today. This hybrid documentary follows writer Natalia Kliuchareva, who began a diary on the day of Russia's invasion of Ukraine and fled to Germany a year later. The diary reflections and reconstructed Russian spaces meet her new life in Bavaria, where displacement continues to shape her sense of belonging. A gentle search for a place where language and life endure.
