

FINDING THE BEAUTY

by Lennart Brede

SYNOPSIS

FINDING THE BEAUTY is a portrait of time and a few individuals who made their way into it. We become witness to what happened in the world of music and art from the early nineties until today. The film is shot in Berlin and New York across 10 years. It directs us through the artists life into the world of success and struggle, of wishes and needs. It is about the artist journey of finding the beauty in their work.
