

FIVE WAYS TO DARIO

by Dario Aguirre

SYNOPSIS

Since more than 10 years the director Dario Aguirre lives between two totally different worlds, Germany and Ecuador. He decides to make an extraordinary journey, visiting five unknown men called Dario Aguirre as well: One in Mexico and four in Argentina. To meet each other develops into a reconciliation with their own past lives and permits a briefly glance into the protagonists present time. For two months Dario shares five different lives, adapting himself to situations and activities he has never done before. He tries to lose his fear of the extension of his visa with the Mexican psychologist, Dario Aguirre. He learns to drive a car with the cabby, Dario Aguirre, in Buenos Aires; he experiences the life of a soldier with the Sergeant Major Dario Aguirre; he philosophizes with the security guard, Dario Aguirre, at the gate over the question "Who am I"; and he observes the influence the upcoming birth is having on future father, Dario Aguirre.
