

GLEB'S FILM

by Christian Hornung

SYNOPSIS

Gleb runs a small hair salon in Hamburg-Altona. It's the only shop in the street, and for many of his elderly clients the visit of the salon is the highlight of the day. The solitude of these people preoccupies Gleb, but simultaneously it stimulates his vivid imagination. While giving perms and darkening eyelashes, he tells his customers about his idea of a film which involves an unhappy man, a lonely woman, and a hairdresser for whom, of course, a very special part is reserved. Thanks to the great interest of Gleb's listeners, the story often takes surprising turns. At the same time it provides the frame for a cinematic portrait of a passionate storyteller.
