

GLOBAL HOME

by Eva Stotz

SYNOPSIS

Director Eva Stotz meets interesting people in her film whom she found through online-hosting-networks and for a limited time plunges into their every-day-life: A music-loving Tuareg in Mali, a wildlife enthusiast in Tokyo/Japan, an ecologist in the Palestinian Westbank, a dance-maniac in Turkey and a visionary in the US are her inspiring hosts. The film explores a thrilling new way of travelling that is becoming more and more popular and paints a bigger picture of human interaction with the world. So get ready to leave behind old negative mindsets like fear, separation and distrust and visit the GLOBAL HOME!
