

GUERRILLA CHEFS

by Jonas Gernstl

SYNOPSIS

Max and Felix, in the mid-20s, have gone through the hard school of star gastronomy and are obsessed with cooking. Their vision: a high class restaurant. Their plan: an eight month trip through Asia – in search of inspiring kitchens and cooks. The two Berliners travel through eight countries and 25 cities, a thrilling journey from simple cookshops to international high class gastronomy. Guerilla Chefs ist a sensuous, adventurous, humorous story of growing up, a tale of friendship, of the pioneer spirit, of successes and setbacks, of fascinating encounters – and a farewell which is harder than expected.
