by Toni Schmid

SYNOPSIS

Quirky, entertaining, reflective.

With his distinctive musical styles, Hans-Jürgen Buchner, a.k.a. Haindling, is a musical legend in Bavaria and beyond.

His biggest hits have featured in the pop charts and people recognize his melodies right away. Successfully combining folk styles with world music and jazz, Haindling's work ranges from poignant, unforgettable instrumentals to pop songs and well-known movie scores. Unlike any other artist, Haindling has forged a unique Bavarian music scene free of kitsch – alive, creative and pioneering.

HAINDLING – A Bavarian Music Legend is the first feature-length documentary about this extraordinary musician. With unpublished songs and exclusive film material of his shows in China it is the portrait of a fascinating, profound and always entertaining artist – a true Bavarian Music Legend
