by monika pirsch

SYNOPSIS

„We are living in the middle of nowhere, so you need to do something about it." states Stefan Reichmann, artistic director of Haltern Pop. So every year in August more than 400 people handbuild the Haltern Pop Festival and bring their dream of an independ music festival to life. Whatever the weather and always with surprising guests. Musicians from all over the world and rural traditions get together and tell a touching story about „Heimat" and the vital power of culture.
