

HANNA SCHYGULLA

by André Schäfer

SYNOPSIS

She was recently awarded with Munich's Cultural Prize of Honour, Hanna Schygulla, the great Diva of European Film, who, at the age of 76, is still working with renowned directors such as François Ozon. The film revisits her major roles from Lili Marleen to Effi Briest, but also shows a fascinating woman up close, who is tirelessly building bridges between cultures: In Berlin, where she makes films with refugee children, in Paris, where François Ozon tells us of his work with her, and in Barcelona, where she films a series with teenagers.
