

HARLAN: IN THE SHADOW OF THE JEW SÜSS

by Felix Moeller

SYNOPSIS

Veit Harlan was Nazi Germany's most successful film director. A hundred million spectators saw his films all over Europe, including the perfidious anti-Semitic Propaganda film "Jew Süss". The documentary presents the first biography of Veit Harlan and shows how his family - including the youngest generation of Harlans - struggles until today with the dark myth of artistic immorality. with: Thomas Harlan, Maria Körber, Caspar Harlan, Kristian Harlan, Christiane Kubrick, Jan Harlan, Jessica Jacoby, Alice Harlan, Chester Harlan, Nele Harlan, Lotte Harlan, Lena Harlan a.o. press voices: „Largely interesting and thought provoking. (...) What motivated Harlan to write and direct such a film? Was he a Nazi true believer, an opportunistic careerist or just a filmmaker too fearful to say no? (...) The issue has various possible answers, all of which Mr. Moeller's film ponders without favouring one over another.“ New York Times „A brilliant new documentary on Harlan...“
