

I'M PEOPLE, I AM NOBODY

by Svetislav Dragomirovic

SYNOPSIS

After living in Malta for four years, facing loneliness and inability to connect with a foreign land and culture, Stevan (60) falls into depression. At a critical moment, he exposes his genitals in front of a group of teenage girls. He claims he went to such extreme because it made him feel alive and visible. In a series of distorted telephone monologues from a prison, Stevan tells his story.
