

IN YOUR HANDS

by Sophie Dettmar

SYNOPSIS

Anka and Lauryn, 2 aspiring midwives, deal with the difficulties and obstacles of the "birth" system in their final year of training. The film accompanies them in their everyday life as midwives and follows their thoughts. Why is there violence during births? What is the task of midwives? And what does a feminist attitude look like in the profession? The film shows with how much courage, caution and empathy the two deal with the topic.
