

INSIDE NATURES MARVELS

by Corinna Hackenbroch, Elmar Bartlmae, Rasmus Elsner

SYNOPSIS

There are places in the world you will never forget, places of incomparable beauty, colorful nature and impressive indigene cultures. The authors Corinna Hackenbroch, Elmar Bartlmae and Rasmus Elsner visited five of these nature marvels producing a versatile series about the Iguazu Falls in Argentina/Brazil, the protected monitor lizard in Komodo, the floating villages of Ha-long Bay, the longest underground river in the Philippines and the Amazon river in Brazil. IGUAZU – The Big Water by Corinna HackenbrochThe Iguazu Falls which straddle the frontier between Brazil and Argentina are among the biggest and most dramatic waterfalls in the world. Together with photographer Marcos Labanca, jaguar expert Augustin Paviolo and animal welfare activist Mara Anfuso Elsegood we discover the sheer beauty of the nature and wildlife in one of the last rainforest refuges for endangered species and meet their first inhabitants, the indigenous people of the Guarani. KOMODO – Land of...
