

INVISIBLE ILLEGAL IN EUROPA

by Andreas Voigt

SYNOPSIS

Millions of people live illegal in Europe under difficult circumstances. They live amongst us. We meet them day by day, but we do not know them, we don't know anything about them.

"INVISIBLE" tells the touching story of five refugees. It tells about what happens to them on their way.

Zakari is a former Officer from Algeria. He deserted from the army and lives for nine years without papers in Germany. Malika a Ceczenian woman flew with her family from Russia to Poland. Oumar came from Guinea Bissau and ended up in a refugee camp in Ceuta. Prince is waiting in a Dutch prison for his deportation back to Nigeria. Edita from Ecuador lives in a transsexual community and seems to be arrived in Paris. INVISIBLE tells about their hopes and dreams and fears.
