

LETTER TO ANNA - THE STORY OF JOURNALIST POLITKOVSKAYA'S DEATH

by Eric Bergkraut

SYNOPSIS

On October 7th, 2006 Vladimir Putinâ€™s 54th birthday, the journalist Anna Politkovskaya is shot in the lift of her Moscow home. Annaâ€™s death is a personal tragedy: she has just learnt that she is to become a grandmother. But the murder is also a political act, for Politkovskaya was the Presidentâ€™s fiercest critic with regard to the war in Chechnya. Why was she shot in cold blood, this elegant woman who was always on the side of the weak and those who had no rights? LETTER TO ANNA â€“ a personal quest featuring numerous previously unpublished recordings. LETTER TO ANNA â€“ a political film, which shows how the Russian government is putting the wheel of history in reverse and sheds a dramatic light on the current status of freedom of press and opinion in Putinâ€™s Russia.
