

LORIOT 100

by André Schäfer

SYNOPSIS

"Die Ente bleibt draußen!"

A film obeisance to the German humorist Lorient. To mark Lorient's 100th birthday, André Schäfer paints a multi-faceted portrait of the best-known German humorist: With numerous film excerpts from his famous sketches, rare documentary footage of Vicco von Bülow from the early days of his career and interviews with companions, colleagues, experts and fans. The film remembers the inventor of the bulbous-nosed Knollennasenmännchen and explores the secret of his very German universe. It's also a homage to the German post-war economic miracle and Lorient's singular symbiosis of Prussianism and anarchic humour. [31 FFHH]
