

LOST WITHOUT A TRACE

by Peter Hartl, Andrzej Klamt

SYNOPSIS

The last days of Second World War were also beginning of the new one, for many civilians much worse. However, it is still a silence in the matter of massive relocations to the Soviet Union. All countries, especially Germany, which went into the influence of Stalin, had a new thread. During the time of peace, many innocent civilians were transported to the prisons and workcamps as enemies of the system. The accusation was usually abstruse: Espionage, sabotage, possession of weaponry.

The movie presents stories of young people from eastern part of Germany caught by the Soviet political police (2,000 of them were executed in Moscow) and over 300,000 civilians driven away to become slaves in the factories and mines because of their German nationality and ability to work.

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Peter Hartl, Andrzej Klamt

2007

52 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

History, Conflicts, War/Peace,
Human Rights, Migration,
Politics, Social issues

PREMIERE

Germany (2007)

PRODUCTION COMPANY

[Halbtotal Filmproduktion GmbH
& Co. KG](#)

Arndtstr. 1

65185 Wiesbaden

Germany

info@halbtotalfilm.de

<http://www.halbtotalfilm.de>