

LOVE ALIEN

by Wolfram Huke

SYNOPSIS

Wolfram Huke's 30th birthday is coming up and he has never had a kiss, let alone a girlfriend. In search for reasons he starts a radical self-examination. An audacious and impressive film from the cosmos of the long-term singleton. "The evenings are actually the problem," because it is then, when everyone else is together with their partner, that Wolfram Huke really senses his loneliness. His 30th birthday is coming up and he has never had a kiss, let alone a girlfriend. Now he wants to face up to this problem and seeks out a relationship consultant. He trains in the gym, gets a new look and sets up a dating profile on the internet. His journey takes him from Munich via Magdeburg and Zagreb to the road to Santiago. He travels through a world in which nothing seems to be more important than relationships – and sex. LOVE ALIEN is a radical self-examination: an audacious and impressive film from the cosmos of the long-term singleton. (DOKLeipzig, Andrea. Naica-Loebell)
