

MADE IN ISLAM

by Siba Shakib

SYNOPSIS

In her feature documentary 'Made In Islam', director Siba Shakib introduces young inventive women, who create Muslim fashion as a means of self-expression and distinction. In their attempt to bring Muslims and Western culture closer together, these women use their modest fashion creations to ease the constraints and limitations of religious covering, while not breaking with the religious tradition as such. Made In Islam - A glimpse behind the veil of prejudice.
