The reason to shoot and edit this film were a big processes taking place at least five years in Bavaria. In Germany it is forbidden to do abortions without consultation official counsellors and proving an indication. In Bavaria, women after an abortion had to stay in a hospital for five days or more. Dr.Theissen did abortions in Memmingen without keeping the women for five days in a hospital, took money for the treatment but did not pay tax for this. It was a rumour, that one of his female assistants had told to a clerk of the tax office about this unofficial income and the processes started. The police went to the house of the doctor and took his card-index with more than 1 500...
