

MY STRANGE HOMELAND

by Johannes Preuss, Marius Brüning

SYNOPSIS

José is born on the floor of a mud hut in a Bolivian mountain village. He is the fourth child of a herdsman. A few months later he arrives at the house of his adoptive family in Germany. José Noé Estrada becomes Manuel Phillip Sosnowski. 30 years later he makes the journey back into his mother's country for the first time in his life. A film about the search for belonging.
