

NATHAN FARB AND THE COLD WAR

by Nathaniel Knop

SYNOPSIS

The American photographer Nathan Farb is able to participate in a cultural exchange during the 'thaw' in the Cold War in 1977 and to photograph families in Novosibirsk. The fascinating series that made Farb famous shows proud and open people. Over 40 years later, the artist visits them again with his camera, this time on the eve of a hot war. (41 Kassel Dokfest, Livia Theuer)

FESTIVALS

2024

17 Lichter Filmfest Frankfurt International

36 Girona FF

Laked Placid FF

41 Kassel Dokfest

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Nathaniel Knop · PRODUCER Sonia Knop · SOUND
Reece York · EDITOR Anatoli Skatchkov · DOP Anatoli
Skatchkov, Peter Rippl

Germany 2024

112 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Biographie/Portrait, Current
Affairs, War/Peace, Social issues

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

English, Russian

PREMIERE

Germany (2024)

LINKS / REFERENCE

PRODUCTION

KINOBRIGADA

NKnop@kinobrigada.net

<https://kinobrigada.net>

<https://www.FB.com/Kinobrig...>

TRAILER

<https://vimeo.com/889950837>

<https://kinobrigada.net/nat...>

<https://made-in-wonder.com/...>