

NEW YEAR EAST

by Denis Pavlovic

SYNOPSIS

The Croatian war raged from 1991 to 1995, leaving a European country in a standstill, caught between the bloody past and an uncertain future. The film accompanies two friends in the last days of the year and shows a portrait of the first young post-war generation in Croatia. In a gray and seemingly hopeless world, they bundle their creativity and fight for their own living space without knowing what the future will bring.
