

NOW AND THEN A BIRD FLEW BY

by Gerburg Rohde-Dahl

SYNOPSIS

The film tells about my experiences caring for my sister during her final six months of life, about my inner conflicts and my feelings of helplessness. However, despite all the tears I shed, I felt at the same time strengthened and sustained. The quantum physician Hans-Peter Dürr writes in his book Love, Source of Cosmos about the "Field of Liveliness". Does a special field of strength exist in proximity of death?
