

OMAR SHARIF – THE LIFE OF A NOMAD

by Jascha Hannover

SYNOPSIS

Film classics like “Lawrence of Arabia” and “Doctor Zhivago” made Omar Sharif a world star. He was an actor, bridge player, nomad, womanizer and loved life. This portrait shows a man full of contradictions, who loved playing bridge more than the film business and who lived half of his life in hotels.

With his son Tarek Sharif as well as grandson Omar Sharif Jr., and among others Steve Kenis, André Ferréol, Zahi Hawass, Catherine Claude.
