

ON EARTH AS IT IS ON HAITI

by Julia Suermondt

SYNOPSIS

They want to come home as heroes. Having buildt a house on Haiti. But the young craftsmen are bugged out from working - hand in hand with their fellow Haitian workers. German urge for efficiency meets Haitian talent for improvisation. To Fabian this is so not professional and he is getting sick from Haitian way of life - dancing and singing on the construction site, working with improvisational means and slaughtering goats for meal. Whereas Nazif as an Almost-German from Kosovo catches fire - he stays for the whole three weeks, then four, then five, then six... until the hurricane comes.
