ON THIS DAY

by Caroline Rosenau

SYNOPSIS

Four moments that defined us. One question: What have we learned?
Do you remember where you were on 9/11? How did you experience the Chernobyl disaster, the fall of the Berlin Wall, or the moment COVID-19 reshaped our world? This film moves beyond facts to ask: How did it /feel/? Eight voices from different generations share personal stories of these turning points.
Though experienced apart, these moments connect us all.
Their memories intertwine with our own, inviting us to re-examine these global cuts through the lens of our private lives—and to ask ourselves what we have truly learned from them.
