

OPERATION NAMIBIA

by Martin Paret

SYNOPSIS

Can books start a revolution? 1976, my uncle Hans boards an old fishing boat as a member of the left-wing activist group Operation Namibia. Their goal, to fight apartheid with 6000 banned books on board. But what was planned as a five-month journey, turns into a tragic odyssey. OPERATION NAMIBIA, a post-colonial experimental film that oscillates between written correspondence and original photographs.

with: Hans Paret, Barry Considine, Jude Smith, Peter Ellis, Roy Purvis, Kenneth K. Martin, Monika Brandmair

FESTIVALS

2023

Newcomer Award Carte Blanche – 47 Duisburger Filmwoche

2024

21 dokumentarfilmwoche hamburg

International German Ethnographic Film Festival

11 dokKa Karlsruhe, Germany

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Martin Paret · SCORE Elisabeth Coudoux, Will Saunders · EDITOR Deborah Uhde · DOP Kris Wood, Many More · SOUND DESIGN Gerald Schauder

Germany 2023

95 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

History, Conflicts, Human Rights

CONTENT CATEGORIES

Experimental

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

German

PREMIERE

Germany (2023)

PRODUCTION COMPANY

Kunsthochschule für Medien

Köln | KHM

Peter-Welter-Platz 2

50676 Köln

Germany

presse@khm.de

<http://www.khm.de>

LINKS / REFERENCE

CONTACT:

Martin Paret

mail@martinparet.com

<https://martinparet.com>

<https://en.khm.de/studentis...>