

POSTCARDS FROM UKRAINE

by Sieva Diamantakos

SYNOPSIS

From the suburbs of Donetsk and the separatists camps in Lugansk, to the block posts in Mariupol and Crimea, passing by the still occupied Maidan Square in Kiev, Postcards From Ukraine sheds light on the country's new generations – their values, their dreams – and the class tensions in the biggest crisis between East and West since the collapse of Soviet Union.

After touring in Ukraine with his band, Sieva moves to Kiev where he gets involved in Maidan Revolution. Fascinated mostly by young people 'cause of their mix of old soviet values and new western culture, he decides to follow five youngsters coming from different cities and social backgrounds.

The characters lead him into unexpected places: from the separatists camps in Lugansk and the Maidan Square protests in Kiev, to the oligarchs estates in Kharkiv and the pro-Russian suburbs in Donetsk. Sieva's journey proceeds under the massive influence of the propaganda; from the beginning of the war in the eastern part of the...

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Sieva Diamantakos

Germany, Luxembourg, Italy
2016

85 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Current Affairs

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

Ukrainian

PREMIERE

Germany (2016)

PRODUCTION COMPANY

HILDEBRANDT FILM GMBH

Wiener Straße 51

10999 Berlin

Germany

produktion@hildebrandt-film.de

<http://www.hildebrandt-film.de>

LINKS / REFERENCE

PRODUCTION:

<http://www.mimesisculture.c...>

<http://www.mimesisculture.c...>

<http://www.mimesisculture.c...>

WORLD SALES

<http://www.ptd.lu>