

PROBLEM SOLVER

by Maximilian Damm

SYNOPSIS

Will St. Leger is an Irish artist and activist. And suffers from depression. Until today he couldn't find closure with his past. With his newest artistic action „Bank of Secrets“ he wants to reveal society from suffering by revealing his past to the wide public. But is he really acting out of the motives he's declaring? Some people say Will St. Leger is a prophet. But why is he the one that has the task to reveal society? This documentary accompanies Will St. Leger on his struggle to find closure with his past and arouses thrilling questions about human action, human motives and society's handling of depression. A piece that shows that there is no pure black or white – and that the interesting questions are in between.
