

PUTIN'S GAMES

by Alexander Gentelev

SYNOPSIS

The 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia will be the first ever to be held in a subtropical resort. The most expensive games ever break all records when it comes to corruption and megalomania. Putin's administration has everyone at its beck and call, from oligarchs down to the ordinary people who have to pay the Olympic bill. Both the powerful and the weak speak out in this investigative documentary, which unveils the hidden story behind Putin's games. Government critic Garry Kasparov says that Putin's Olympic propaganda is really all about speeding up the privatization of land in Sochi. Many inhabitants have had to make way for hotels, ski jumps and a large harbor, which were subsequently swept away by storms and landslides – the Olympic village was built on a swamp in the hottest region of Russia. To a large extent, the story of these environmentally unfriendly Olympic Games is one of threats and enormous misappropriations of money. The 45-kilometer (28-mile) road to the...

FESTIVALS

IDF Amsterdam, Jihlava, Art Doc Festival Moscow

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Alexander Gentelev

Germany 2013

90 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Current Affairs, Politics, Sports

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

Russian

PREMIERE

Germany (2013)

WORLD SALES

Cinephil

18 Levontin Street

6511207 Tel Aviv

Israel

info@cinephil.com

<http://cinephil.com>

PRODUCTION COMPANY

SAXONIA ENTERTAINMENT

GmbH office Leipzig

Altenburger Str. 9

04275 Leipzig

Germany

info@saxonia-entertainment.de

<https://www.saxonia-entertainment.de>

LINKS / REFERENCE

<https://vimeo.com/34960610>