

RE:PLAY - THE FINAL SEASON

by Laura N. Junghanns, Clara Schmieder

SYNOPSIS

How do you say goodbye to each other after ten years of artistic work together? The documentary shows the last season of an ensemble, gives viewers a unique look behind the scenes of the theater world and takes them on a journey full of magical moments. The worldwide pandemic and the lockdown not only stop the work at the theater in spring of 2020, the documentary work is also significantly influenced by it. The result is a unique portrait of the emotions of artists from this time, who deal with leaving, community and memories.
