

ROTATION

by Eric Esser

SYNOPSIS

One building. One day. 40 people swapping rooms. "Kinzig 9", is the collective occupied housing project in former East Berlin. It has many different rooms: some big, some small, some bright, some dark. To be fair, the inhabitants swap apartments and they do it all in one day. Unfortunately, the logistics do not go as smoothly as planned and the madness of the rotation puts their harmonious community aspirations to the test.
