<https://vimeo.com/250082014> Do all Italians still live at mama's and eat pasta all day? Do all Dutchmen smoke dope in their camper van? And are the Greeks really all work-shy sirtaki dancers? Prejudices are often as ludicrous as they are stubborn. And Europe is full of them! But where do these stereotypes come from, and how do they relate to reality? In 10 episodes, Swiss rapper and beatboxer Knackeboul visits 10 countries and stumbles upon curiosity-inducing, astounding, hilarious and gripping adventures. Be sure to tune in! A racy, moving, authentic tour of a multifarious European – and of our shared stereotypes.
