

SUZA GO

by Ingrid Molnar

SYNOPSIS

Original German version with few dialogues of HOT HEADS EAST annual first weekend of September in Germany, near the border to Poland.

This was my first time there - and the first thought was "This is the picture of PEACE IN EUROPE" Airfield and hangars built by the Nazis. Used by the Russians in the former GDR. Now here amongst others Angelo from Switzerland, is racing with an American bike with specification for WWII - which makes drivin' and drinkin' beer –instead of shootin' – at the same time possible. On stage a.o. the [at that time upcoming] Rockabillyband MAD MEN from Zagreb, Kroatia with selfpenned songs. That's what I call fun and that's what gals just wanna.

00:06 Suza in her husband's ride 01:08 "a quarter mile is about 280 meters" 01:23 Fred enters the airfield 01:26 Rico categorizes the rides and paints start numbers 01:37 Angelo gets registered for the race 02:39 Interview with a rider from Swiss about the different styles in this scene. Some prefer the 30/40ies...
