

THE ART OF MUSEUMS

by Julie Kirchhoff, Sylvie Kürsten, Ralf Pleger, Kurt Mayer

SYNOPSIS

THE ART OF MUSEUMS is not a classic documentary series about galleries displaying dusty old paintings. These films trace the turbulent biographies of each museum, from their survival of wars to their visions for the future. The museums have witnessed fierce battles and great triumphs. Their lives are full of intrigue, hope and celebration—moments inscribed in their histories. We tell these stories through a multitude of perspectives, from exclusive archive material, to interviews with museum directors and celebrities like Vivienne Westwood, Marina Abramović, Ólafur Elíasson and Wolfgang Joop and many more. Our audience encounters some of the most powerful masterpieces of European cultural history—and experiences just how alive these museums are...

In the halls of world-famous museums, stars of the creative industry experience some of the world's most iconic paintings. New ways of seeing emerge and the power of art is articulated in fresh, and often unexpected, ways. In this...
